

'HUMAN ROOTS' EXHIBITION OF SCULPTURES COMES TO COMO SHAMBHALA ESTATE

COMO Shambhala Estate – our wellness retreat in central Bali – will be transformed from July 18th to October 18th as open spaces filled with wooden sculptures by artist Mickaël Obrénovitch as part of his 'Human Roots' exhibition.

French-born artist Obrénovitch uses 200-year-old teak wood from Java for his work, influenced by the notion of the Indonesian forest as Asia's lung. With the natural world as the theme, the work will be on show at COMO Shambhala Estate in the lobby, tea house and Ojas lounge. Other pieces will be exhibited at sister property Uma by COMO, Ubud, in the COMO Shambhala Retreat wellness sanctuary, the pool bar, lobby and Italian-inspired restaurant Uma Cucina.

The selling exhibition 'Human Roots' kicks off with a three-course charity dinner at Uma Ubud's Italian restaurant Uma Cucina featuring specialities such as goats cheese-stuffed blossoms and roasted seabass, with 25 per cent of ticket sales going towards the local 'Give a Gift That Grows' project.
